ADVENTURES OF PACK 107 CAKE CONTEST

Adventures of Pack 107 are exciting and numerous!
Design a cake to show one of the 2011-12 Pack
107 Activities or a general Cub Scout theme.
Choose your category below.

The Rules for this year's cake contest are:

- The Scout and male partner (father, grandfather, uncle, brother, friend, neighbor, mailman, milkman, mechanic, etc.) must make, bake and decorate the cake. No female help allowed!
- Your entire masterpiece, including decorations/accessories/construction pieces, must be edible. If you bring a cake with non-edible anything, we will be happy to eat it, but we cannot judge it. (You will still receive a cake segment.)

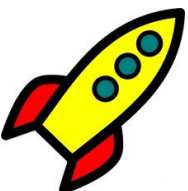

- All cakes must have an accompanying title card displayed with the cake. Do not put your name on the card or on the cake! Cake will be given a number for judging purposes at check-in.

- Please bring your cake on a disposable plate or tray.

- Cake check-in is at the Lincoln Inn on February 26, 2011 from 2:00—3:00 pm.

- Your cake can be any one of the following themes:
 - Best Theme - Adventures of Pack 107
 - Biggest (Width)
 - Flattest — Please note: This must be a cake. No tortillas or other flat items may be used.
 - Tallest
 - Best Scouting Theme

Good Luck and Have Fun!
